Family Violence Prevention and Legal Service (FVPLS) Victoria is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation established 15 years ago. We provide culturally safe, trauma informed, and holistic assistance to Aboriginal victim survivors of family violence and sexual assault.

An exciting opportunity has arisen in our Melbourne office for an additional Senior Lawyer to provide and oversee high quality legal advice and representation, and non-legal support. Senior Lawyers work closely with Paralegal Support Workers to address the multitude of interrelated legal and non-legal issues faced by our clients, assisting them to access a variety of legal, social, psychological, cultural, health, financial and other support services.

Application Procedure:

This is a designated position established as a special measure under sections 12 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010. Only female candidates are eligible to apply for this position. Preference will be given to women of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent.

All applications must address the key selection criteria, include a CV and provide two professional referees. Only applications addressing the key selection criteria will be considered. Please refer to www.fvpls.org for further organisational information and the position description. Applications close on 27th November 2017. Please apply directly to Sue Sharma (Human Resources Manager) at ssharma@fvpls.org or a confidential discussion with Simone Elias (Principal Legal Officer) on 03-9244-3333.
